A Cautionary Note on Forward-Looking Statements:

This material contains statements (including figures) regarding Mitsui & Co., Ltd. ("Mitsui")'s corporate strategies, objectives, and views of future developments that are forward-looking in nature and are not simply reiterations of historical facts. These statements are presented to inform stakeholders of the views of Mitsui's management but should not be relied on solely in making investment and other decisions. You should be aware that a number of important risk factors could lead to outcomes that differ materially from those presented in such forward-looking statements. These include, but are not limited to, (i) change in economic conditions that may lead to unforeseen developments in markets for products handled by Mitsui, (ii) fluctuations in currency exchange rates that may cause unexpected deterioration in the value of transactions, (iii) adverse political developments that may create unavoidable delays or postponement of transactions and projects, (iv) changes in laws, regulations, or policies in any of the countries where Mitsui conducts its operations that may affect Mitsui's ability to fulfill its commitments, and (v) significant changes in the competitive environment. In the course of its operations, Mitsui adopts measures to control these and other types of risks, but this does not constitute a guarantee that such measures will be effective.

Net Income Attributable to Mitsui for 3-month period Ended June 2012

Overall the global economy demonstrated a slower rate of recovery due to weakness in advanced economies and moderated growth momentum in emerging economies.

- Net Income attributable to Mitsui was \(\frac{\pma}{104.4}\) billion, supported by increases in volumes of Metals and Energy and high oil prices.
- ✓ This represents a decline from the corresponding period of the previous year due to lower metal resource prices, but an increase from the 4Q of the previous year.

^{*} In this presentation material, "net income" means "net income attributable to Mitsui & Co., Ltd. for the three-month period ended June 30"
